

“The Choice is Mine Alone.”

This morning is the beginning of a new day and a new life to live. God has ordained this day for me to use, I can waste it or use it for good in his name. The choice is mine alone.

What I do today is very important because what happens tomorrow depends on what I do today. The choice is mine alone.

Will today be consumed by my love of God and humanity? Will I sell my time wisely or trade it for self-glorification and greed? The choice is mine alone.

When tomorrow comes, and it will, today will be gone forever leaving something in its place of greater or lesser value. The choice is mine alone.

At day's end and the value measured, I want to look back and say, “I lived my day in the glory of the Lord. I left behind good, not evil and it was a better day for all I met.” The choice is mine alone.

The choice is mine alone, but I made it not alone, for God is with me.
